

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

All program participants must sign and return this waiver. If the student is under 18 years of age, a parent or guardian must also read and sign the waiver.

I, _____, will participate in The Monroe Society program. This program is not required as part of any individual application for admission to the University of Virginia and is conducted on a voluntary basis. I realize that my visit makes no impact on the University Office of Admissions or the Rector and Visitors of the University. I recognize that the University does not have the power to control the activities of The Monroe Society and that the University will not be responsible for any harm that may occur in connection with this activity.

I have also been advised that The Monroe Society is in no way responsible for the conduct of University students nor the supervision of any hosted student. Monroe Society hosts are students and not trained counselors and cannot be expected to exercise parental type control. Prospective participants and their parents should be fully aware of the freedom allowed by this program and should have considered the repercussions of this carefully.

Each person signing below signifies his or her understanding of the information above, The Monroe Society program, and hereby releases the Rector and Visitors of the University, the Office of Admissions, The Monroe Society officers and hosts, their employees, and other agents and their successors and assigns from any and all claims arising from any participation in the program.
